

Andean films for Andean People

- synopsis -

During the months of august and september 2005, a peruvian institution showed films in many indian communities of the southern Peru.

In most of these andean communities the word “cinema” has never been heard, the possibility of seeing film spoken in quechua, never imagined.

This film is an experience of remote places, dispersed stories, amazing reactions... of people discovering that there are stories about their lives.

Proyecto Amauta - CBC / Ojo de Agua Producciones
Cusco - 2005